Principal's Address

The Class of 1977 has chosen a most appropriate poem for their yearbook theme. Kipling, in the poem "If," believes that all young people who wish to become truly adult must know themselves, believe in themselves, be true to themselves in the midst of conflicts and pressures if they are to achieve a life worth living.

I sincerely hope that during your tenure at Fairhaven High School you have developed these virtues. May health and happiness be with you always.

IF* You can keep your head when all about you are losing theirs, and blaming it on you,
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
But make allowance for their doubting, too;
If you can wait and not be tired by waiting,
Or being lied about, don't deal in lies,
Or being hated, don't give way to hating,
And yet don't look too good nor talk too wise;
If you can dream and not make dreams your master,
If you can think and not make thoughts your aim,
If you can meet with triumph and disaster,
And treat those two impostors just the same;
If you can bear to hear the truth you've spoken
Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,
Or watch the things you gave your life to, broken,
And stoop and build em up with worn-out-tools;
If you can make one heap of all your winnings,
And risk it on one turn of pitch-and-toss,
And lose, and start again at your beginnings,
And never breathe a word about your loss;
If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew
To serve your turn long after they are gone . . .
And so hold on when there is nothing in you
Except the will which says to them: "Hold on!"
If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with kings — nor lose the common touch,
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you,
If all men count with you, but none too much;
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
With sixty seconds' worth of distance run,
Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,
And — which is more — you'll be a Man, my son!

Rudyard Kipling

“Life is what we make it — is still the basis of happiness and success.”

In “IF,” Kipling tries to lead us to a fantastic life by setting up some basic morals and truths to follow. These are not to confine our dreams and desires, but to guide them.

Each one of us is filled with bright, vast dreams, goals, and expectations no matter who he or she is. But far too often we tend to think only of ourselves, and miss a vital part of FRIENDSHIP — that of LISTENING and SHARING with others. Through this encounter would come a startling realization — the fact that everyone has something totally unique to offer. It may be a piece of advice or a quotation from a famous philosopher, an outlook into the future or just anything which distinguishes him from all others.

Since we all have our own separate goals to strive for in the manner of which the individual chooses, no two will look upon life in exactly the same way. Therefore, we have no way to determine which path is the correct one. But, by our actions, the friends we choose, and the activities we partake in, we are showing people who we are and why we’re here. Since everyone has a different reason for living and enjoying this earth, it’s up to us to seek out our meaning and pursue it till we reach our goal.

If it seems feasible, DO IT! If your goals are high, then STRIVE TO ACHIEVE! Do whatever it takes to make your life the most fulfilling and rewarding experience that you possibly can.

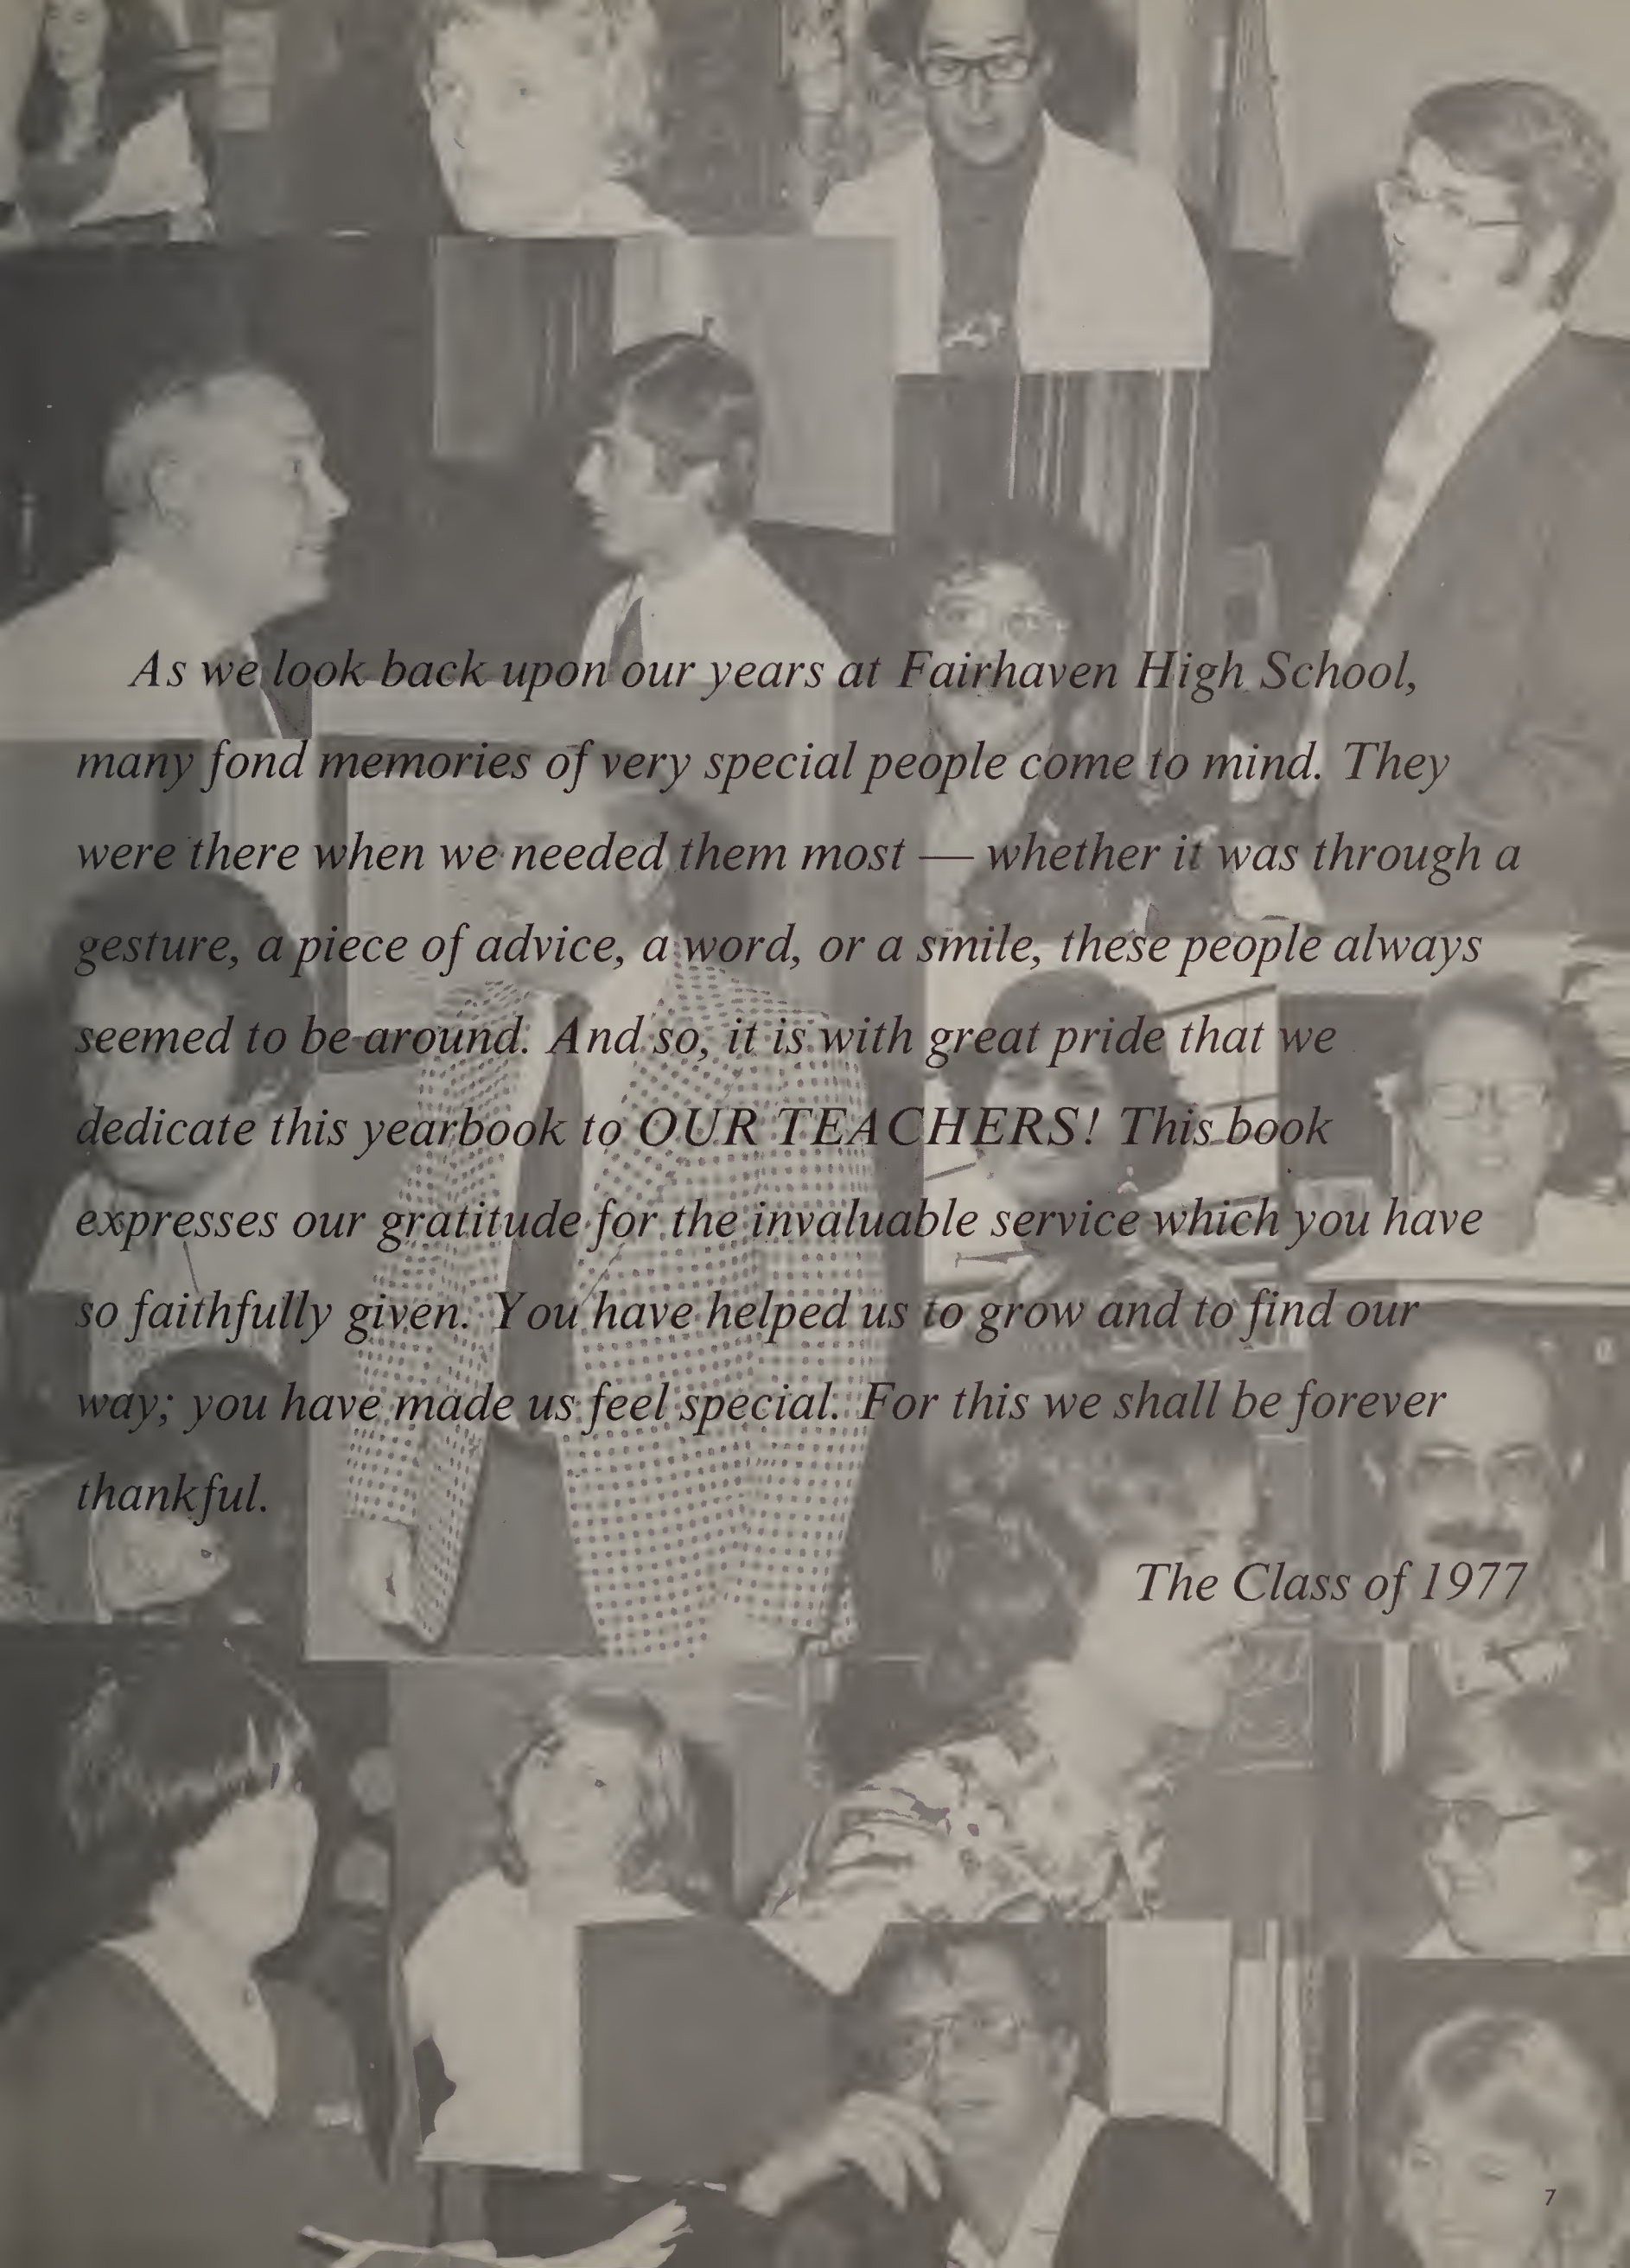

TRUST in others! In return, they may confide in you; if you cause others harm and mistrust, you are only causing pains for yourself.

Never lose FAITH, HOPE, and TRUST for they will take you everywhere and help you out of anything. HAPPINESS — it’s an internal feeling; one of the satisfactions of giving, of accomplishment, of self-fulfillment, and of the awareness that YOU are somebody.

Do not walk in the shadow of another for your light may never shine. And, most important of all:

BE YOURSELF!!

A collage of black and white photographs of teachers and students at Fairhaven High School. The photos are of various sizes and are arranged in an overlapping manner. Some show individuals, while others show groups. The subjects are dressed in formal or semi-formal attire typical of the late 1970s. The background of the collage is a light, textured color.

As we look back upon our years at Fairhaven High School, many fond memories of very special people come to mind. They were there when we needed them most — whether it was through a gesture, a piece of advice, a word, or a smile, these people always seemed to be around. And so, it is with great pride that we dedicate this yearbook to OUR TEACHERS! This book expresses our gratitude for the invaluable service which you have so faithfully given. You have helped us to grow and to find our way; you have made us feel special. For this we shall be forever thankful.

BICENTENNIAL PAGEANT

On May 1st and May 2nd, 1976, Fairhaven High School, in conjunction with the Town of Fairhaven, staged a play, American Moments. The play was in honor of our Bicentennial, and was written and directed by Mrs. Mabel Hoyle Knipe, a former English teacher at Fairhaven High. The play was successful and enjoyed by everyone.

DAY
1976*

Peter Desrosiers receives the Harvard Book Club Award.

Walking solemnly into the Larch Avenue Auditorium, the boys wore sports suits, and the girls wore white dresses and carried single yellow roses. It was a day of tear-filled eyes and shaky smiles. It was a day that marked the end of our two years as Underclassmen, and marked the beginning of our final year. With pride and dignity, Jeff Canastra accepted the class mantle, and our Senior year, our year of responsibilities and recognition, had begun.

Cindy Murray is the recipient of the Mabel Hoyle Knipe Award.

Jeff Canastra accepts the class mantle.

Cecelia Kut is presented with the College Club Award.

Cindy Mello receives first place in the French Oral contest.

"If I could make days last forever"

May 7, 1976 — the day of our Junior Prom finally arrived. With the softly colored streamers flowing gently in the background, couples danced to the music of Motivation. The highlight of the evening came when Class President Jeff Canastra proclaimed Peggy Bennett Queen and Linda Gordon Lady-in-Waiting. To climax the crowning, all the couples joined the happy Queen and her escort Paul Demanche, in dancing to "Time In A Bottle," the theme song of our prom.

Class History

It seems like we've been in high school forever
And the memories we have we'll surely treasure.
How we thought we were great and didn't know why
During our freshman year at Hastings Junior High.
We'll remember our class advisor Mr. Mailloux
Who led us on, making greater the white and blue.
Our class officers were female majority ruled
With Jeanne Coleman as president of the school.
We bet Jeff Canastra didn't have to think twice
When he was elected as our class vice.
Doreen Renaud, too, must have had pleasure
As she took care of all our class treasure.
And the secretary, Ruth Mellody, helped out too
As she took care of matters for me and you.
And our football season was really grand
As we faced our undefeated season in a proud stand.
Do you remember the ninth grade dance?
With Cats 'ss it was great from a first glance.
We signed each other's yearbooks way back then
But it wasn't so sad because we'd see each other again.
We ended that year off with a bang
With a rock band and Ronnie Manzone who sang.

Our sophomore year began with a great fear
Of unknown adventures we'd cherish so dear.
Remember how it was to be a sophomore
When all the upperclassmen pushed you around the floor?
Remember all the homework you never thought would end
And a day off from it was just like a God-send?
Everything was new for each and everyone of us
And anything anyone did caused a great fuss.
Mr. Paquin became our new class advisor
And nobody else could be any more wiser.
The president for the next three years was Jeff Canastra
Who did his best to keep the class from disaster.
Oxford Theatre is where our field trip took us to be
And "Rebecca," the movie classic, is what we went to see.
The class project was another first for that year
As we sold our boxes of candy without much cheer.
We received our class rings in 1975 in May
Then, graduation seemed so very far away.
Half days we had then every other week were odd and new
And just like everything else, those were ended too.
And final exams were enough to give us a scare
But then as sophomores we really didn't care.

Our class seemed to band together as Juniors we became
And we all just about knew everyone else's face and name.
The field trip that year took us from school most of the day
As we saw "Two Gentlemen of Verona," a Shakespearean play.
Our class project had memo boards for us to sell.
We weren't too thrilled but it was just as well.
April 14, 1976 may be a memorable propriety
For a small group who joined the National Honor Society.
And May 7, 1976 was something of a sight
Because it was the date for our Junior Prom night.
June 3, 1976 was very special in its own way
Because it was the date for our own Junior Day.
Everyone, if you remember, was in his best clothes.
The girls in white dresses with their yellow rose.
And there was no exception either with the guys
As they stood proud in their suits and ties.
It was so nice to be dressed up on that special occasion
As the power of the school was handed over to the '77 invasion.

Finally in September '76 there was no need to guess
That we the Class of '77 were the Seniors of F.H.S.
Our total of two hundred thirty had united into one.
And before we left, we had things that had to be done.
Like the honorable mention, our Senior float
And our revenge that caused us to gloat.
For that insult, our class did not yield
As we burned the thing in the center of the football field.
Our last class project was selling candy bars, 50¢ a piece.
After that, thank God, our class projects ceased.
We worried about our future plans most of that year.
Decisions plagued us as we asked advice of our peers.
Going to work or selecting a college battled in our minds
Or to some choosing both and having them combine.
Venus DeMilo was the place which held our Senior Prom.
That night our class had taken the world by storm.
As we signed each other's yearbooks that last year
Knowing we would never be one again made us each shed a tear.
But as our lives go on and endure from December to December
Our F.H.S. will remain concealing memories of what we will remember.

Our American Field Service student, Carmen Paz Guzman, arrived in the summer of 1976 from her hometown of Valdivia, Chile, and is spending the year with the Ransom family.

During her short stay here, Carmen has traveled to Maine and Connecticut, and has visited many historical sights in Boston.

We will all remember Carmen as Mazacasso in the Senior Play "Magic! Magic!" and as having a warm, friendly, smile for each one of us. We hope she finds her stay in the United States enjoyable and we wish her only the best for the future.

Class Will

PAT and MARGE finally leave Mrs. Pursley . . . in peace!

KATHY VICTORINO happily leaves College Math to anyone who likes headaches.

CHERYL FRANCIS leaves her camera to any girl who has the nerve to stop guys in the hall to take their picture.

CHRIS GONET leaves her “tsk” sound to anyone who wants to irritate the teacher.

MAUREEN MURPHY leaves her blushing to anyone who needs it.

SUE FIELD leaves her weird vocabulary to anyone who wants to become confused.

SUE leaves her complaining to anyone who is as bored as she was.

CHERYL F. CHRIS G. and SUE D. leave their scotch tape for sabotaging lockers to the new girls in Honor Society who will be in the locker room.

ANN BORGES leaves her height to JODY RODRIGUES.

TIM V. leaves driving like he writes.

Honor Society leaves with MARY BETH’S dismissal instead of Mrs. Pursely’s.

The Senior Class leaves DAWNE MARTIN 999 copies of the yearbook.

MELINDA leaves her last name to anyone who can pronounce it.

RITA and NANCY leave anonymous notes to Mr. Barriteau.

JACKIE leaves her pen collection to anyone she can trust to return them.

LU leaves the Alcove key to her brother THEW.

MARIE LAROCQUE leaves her books to anyone who can carry them.

JOHN leaves with his 3 albums from the “great Spray give away.”

JACKIE, TED, and GINNY leave Mr. Dufour in peace.

BUNNY leaves her notes to get out of gym to her sister, LITTLE JO.

Periods 1 and 2 Physics classes leave Mr. Haaland in smoke, as usual.

12A Math leaves Mr. Malcolm’s famous last words, “after this it’s all downhill,” to any junior brave enough to believe him.

CINDY and CHRIS leave their screaming remarks in Math to their sister PAULA with hope that she will carry on the tradition.

CESSIE and DOREEN leave their lunch escapades to anyone who can get past Ace.

The Junior Prom bowling league leaves Lums echoing with our laughter, especially MARY FORTES, for a long time.

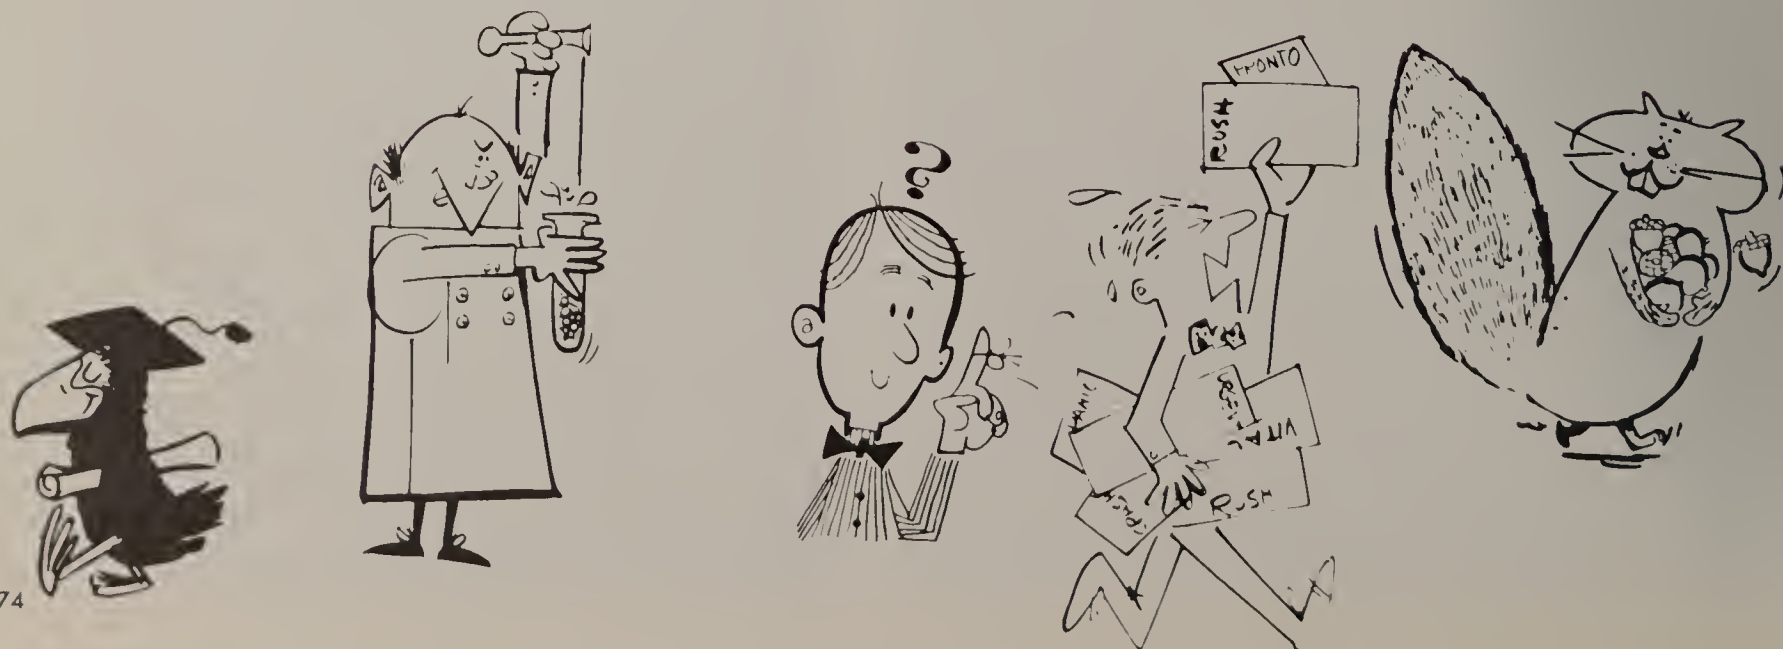

ELISE MARIEN leaves her assigned bench seat in the 7th period girls’ locker room study to her sister CATHY, but reserves the right to rent it out on weekends.

CHERYL leaves Gladys in the closet.

THE LAMENT OF A GRADUATING CLASS

Fairhaven High School now has our class to graduate.
We'll never be part of this school anymore.
But hasn't this been our goal for the past twelve years?
Isn't this what we've all waited for?

Think back to the days laced with smiles and fears
In F.H.S. where we spent our growing years.
Year by year we developed our unique personalities
Until deep inside we felt pleased.
We learned from each other the aspects of life
Taking the good and the bad along in our strife.

Each and every one of us had to measure up
Not only on tests and to our teachers
But to ourselves as well as to our peers.
So for what it's worth, the struggle is over.
Now, those memories may shed a few tears
As we trace back over the years.

We'll all miss our classmates
And our teachers' never ceasing calls.
We'll all miss those notes and jokes
We used to pass along in the halls.
We'll miss that special teacher who was considered a friend
And how that friendship had to come to an end.
And all that homework we all dreaded to do
Seems a small sacrifice for all the happiness we knew.

So with the diploma comes a sad thought
As we each go our separate ways.
Gone forever are our golden adolescent days
Along with our small piece of heaven.

Gone forever is our class of nineteen seventy-seven.

*“ . . . Yesterday is but a memory
And tomorrow is only a vision
But today well lived makes every yesterday a memory of happiness and every tomorrow a vision of hope . . . ”*

The good times and the bad you've seen — and all the others in between, remember

Do you remember the times of your life?

Memories are time that you borrow — to spend when you get to tomorrow

The laughter and the tears, the shadows of misty yesterdays

Let's take a lifetime to say; "I knew you well"

“I’ve been going a long time now along the way I’ve learned some things.

You have to make the good times yourself take the little times and make them into big times and save the times that are all right for the ones that aren’t so good.”
